Boston took the field.

First Inning—Ewing fealed out to Kelly. Kirgman made a brilliant outen of Richardson's fly and Wise caught Ward's liner with one hand.

Kelly bunted to Welch, who threw wildly to Connor, and the beauty was and. Johnston put up a nigh foul whon Ewing yelled for and muffed. Johnston then hit a hot one close to second, which Ward stooped, threw to Richardson, and the latter threw to Counce in time to make a neat double. Kelly showed some of his tricky bad playing in that he stood directly in front of Connor when the double was made in order to balk Roger. Name filed to Richardson.

Second Inning—Thernan bounded the ball to Madden, who stopped prettily and restred the runner at first. After Councer had knocked a couple of tremendous feets he tipped out to Kelly. O'Rourke was given his base on balls and went to second on a wild pitch. Gore went out on a lire fly to Brown.

After four balls had been called on him Wise foul tipped out to Ewing. Bornung retired on a pop fly to Welch. Fiv balls gave Morrill first and he took accound on Wards fumble of Brown's grounder.

It is doubtful if a perfect play would have retired either man, as ward had to run to short left to tenen the ball. Knuman's grounder.

Third Inning—Whitney was hit in the side with a pitched ball and took Eret. Welch fouled out to Morrill. Ewings sacrifice bounder advanced Witney to second. Richardson hit a liner which wise caught.

Madden made the first hit of the game—a line rive for one base over second. Kelly placed a two-bagger along the field foul line and Madden scored.

Johnston hit to Ward, who threw to Whitney, which Brown eaught. Richardson struck out and Ward went out on a long fly to Johnston in left centre.

Morrill hit a baby bunting to Hichardson. Brown bunted a sittle one in front of the plate and Wesca by a quick throw retired him at first, and Mickey gained another assist by a fine stop and throw of Riusman's grounder.

Seventh Insing—Therman filed out to Brown. Five bells gave Connor first. O'Bourke popped a weak fly to Wise. Connor was third out on his try for second.

Madden was out at first on a close decision, Ward gaining the assist. Kelly hit safely to right for one base.

Johnston's grounder to Whitney doubled up Kelly at second and Dickey at first, Waltney, Richardson and Connor officialing.

Eighth Inning—Gore started things with a sting-in baser to right and went to second on Whitney's limely sacrifice grounder to Kiosman. Welch earned all the yells are got by knoeting out a single between short and taird and earning Gore's run.

Ewing took second on the throw in and made a clever steel of third. Richardson filed out to Brown. One rus.

clever steal of third. Richardson filed out to Brown. One run.

Hichardson tumbled down just as he stopped Nash's bounder and the runner resched first. Five balls gave Wise first.

The Tecumesh chief was caught on a try for second. Ward's fumble gave Morrill first, but Johnny caught Brown's fly. One run.
